

IBANS Mini-symposium

19th September 2012

Bute Lecture Theatre D: 2.30 – 4.25pm

Followed by a wine reception in the Bell Pettigrew museum

Programme:

2.30 – 2.45: Keith Sillar - Welcome and introduction

2-45 – 3.10: Luke Rendell

The evolution of culture and communication in theory, humans and whales.

3.10 – 3.35: Silvia Paracchini.

The genetics and epidemiology of reading-related traits

3.35 – 4.00: Nathan Bailey

Catching evolution red-handed: behaviour and genomics in a rapidly evolving field cricket system

4.00 – 4.25: Peter Tyack

Do some cetacean species construct their calls from sequences of phoneme-like subunits?

4.30 Bell Pettigrew museum wine reception