

Student professionalism matters

Consultation
now open

Medical Schools
Council

General Medical
Council

Professional behaviour matters. We want to ensure the medical students of today are the excellent doctors of tomorrow, so we've produced new guidance to help them on this journey.

Support for medical schools

We've also updated our guidance for medical schools. This supports them in dealing with concerns about students' professionalism and fitness to practise issues.

Respond to the consultation by 11 November

Tell us your views on both guidance documents by taking part in our consultation at www.gmc-uk.org/studentprofessionalism

